

Refund Policy of Techne Synergies, LLC

Refund of Registration Fees for Courses and Workshops

This notice describes Techne Synergies' refund policy. Registration fees for courses and workshops will be refunded in full upon notification by email or writing up to and including the date specified with each course and workshop. The specific cancellation date is subject to the particular arrangements and agreements Techne Synergies must make with facilities, such as hotels or restaurant establishments, specific for each course and workshop date and location. The refund will be in the form of the received payment: credit to account for credit card payment and check for check payment.
